
HOW TO ADD EBOOKS TO YOUR IPAD

Important Information before you start:

- It is vital that you use the username and password supplied to you by Wriggle in order to access and log in to each of the publisher apps or websites. This username has already been set up and registered for you with each of the publishers. This will have been on a sheet of paper included inside your iPad. We thoroughly recommend that you photograph this information for safe keeping as it will be required again at a later date.
- The next most important step is to photograph each of the eBook codes for each of your books and again keep this on your iPad. Perhaps write the name of the book beside the eCode before you take the photograph to ensure you know which code belongs to which book.
- Be mindful that for some publishers you must access their website using a web browser such as Safari or Google Chrome in order to upload your books for the first time. Other publishers allow you to add books directly through the app. If one approach does not work, please try the other.
- Each book should have a unique eBook code inside the front cover which will allow you to add the digital copy of the book to your device.
- The steps for adding eBooks for each of the main publishers are outlined below.
- In most cases it is recommended to log out of the eBook app and log back in again once you have added your eBooks.
- Should you have any problems logging in to any of your publisher websites or apps please directly contact the publisher in question. This is by far the quickest approach to solving most problems. Each of the publishers have an email address or contact form on their websites.
